

Alfredo Calatayud Reig

Education MP in Almansa City Hall

1. My interest in politics has been since I was young. And I drew attention to Antonio's political party.
2. I would like young people propose me projects to try to improve the situation of young people and therefore differs from others because I open the doors to the world of politics.
3. The relationship of political parties is good but always in discussions can be a bit of verbal aggression.
4. Sometimes there is verbal discussion because some political party doesn't like the proposals of the others, but these arguments only exist in the workplace, no one wants to get into the personal.

5. Yes, it would be interesting that young people learn how the world of politics and to exercise their potential.

6. Now it would be impossible because if there aren't jobs for old people qualified imagine you for young people unqualifieds, what could be done is to create more jobs compared sector service.

7. Yes, it would be interesting to do more activities for young people in summer and above all to create centers where young people can make music, have a dance room, a disco for children...

8. Yes, we would be willing to make a bike lane but would be very difficult but circulate through the downtown areas because the streets are very narrow; but in some other areas outside could be done. As barriers to the disabled we will take all necessary measures.

9. In any case, remove the soundtracks in areas where they aren't need.

10. At the moment rail transport will be the same to build the new station will have more then routes.

11. I don't think we can punish violations of recycling because they're going to put surveillance, in these cases the best we can do is to further promote education of persons in the field of recycling.

12. I try to finish those promises but if I could I would not suggest other things that maybe I could play, so before you commit to do something you have to be sure you will, but don't commit yourself.

By: Belén Julián Plaza & Sonia Díaz
Castillo