

Ireland

How we elect our government

Every 5 years all Irish citizens over 18 years can vote to elect 166 TD's (teachta dala which means a member of our parliament called the Dail).

Our country is divided in to 43 constituencies or voting areas and each constituency elects 3, 4 or 5 TD's depending on the number of people who live in that voting area.

