

About me!

Hey there! I am Ellen. I am sixteen years old. I am a student in St Mary's College Arklow (Arklow is an hour from Dublin which is the capital city in Ireland). I love reading and writing poems. I also really like acting. I love my friends very much and don't know where I would be with out them! I also love my family dearly .

Transition year

- Transition year is like a gap year! There are no exams at the end of the year and you get to do work experience. Next week I will be going to work for the week in a day care centre in Dublin. I hope this will be interesting. I hope to learn loads from it

Hobbies

- I love acting, reading and writing poems. I also love to play tennis. My favourite books are Goodnight Mr Tom, The Time Travellers Wife and The Twilight Saga. I have always loved acting I have been in 13 shows and I really enjoy doing them. Also I must add day dreaming to this list!!
