short blonde hair)

Name: Rebecca Kelly

Age: 16

School: St. Marys College Arklow, Ireland

Family: I have live with my parents and have no brothers or sisters

Pets: I have one little old dog called Geordie and a fish named Toast

Hobbies: Playing guitar, swimming, reading (I am a total book worm!), hanging out with friends, watching movies, playing the cello. But my absolute favourite hobby is horse riding 😊 I go three times a week and work at a riding stables with a group of friends. It is my absolute passion

School year: I am currently in Transition Year (T.y.) this is an optional year in my school where you don't have the stress of exams at the end of year. It is a year to try new hobbies, skills and develop as a person as well as getting ready for the Leaving Certificate.

Music: My life would be a lot duller without my music! I listen to it when I am out walking or just doing stuff around the house. I like almost all types of music. My favourite bands/musicians would probably be The Script, P!nk, Adele, Olly Murs, Paramore, Panic! At the Disco and LOADS more!

Here are some pictures of myself, my friends and a few other things:

Picture one: Me doing what I love, no matter the weather!

Picture two: Went cave exploring over the summer with a bunch of great people. As you can see we were filthy by the end of it! Not to mention hungry and tired but it was still a great experience.

Picture three: Me with my great friends on a school trip last year.
