

How many members are there in the city council?

There are 31 members. 16 from MHP (Mayor's Party-opposition) , 12 AKP (Government Party) 2 DYP and 1 CHP.

What does the municipality mean for the citizens of Isparta?

The main relationship between the city hall and the citizen is about to rent, sell and buy the estate. City council has the right of renting and collecting.

How is the agenda prepared?

By means of the public's will and the demand.

How does the council work?

There is a vice chairman who directs the council when the mayor is off. There are also 5 expertise commission which discuss the subjects about town planning.

There is another point. When the votes result 16-16 the mayor's group win the voting. There should be at least 17 members in the meeting and 9 members to make the election.

How many women are there in the council?

There are 2.

